

Sacajawea Center Team Meeting
January 14, 2015

The meeting was called to order at 4:15 PM. Present were team chairman Waidely, Councilman Chinske and Center Director Lin Gray.

A discussion of the grant submission and approval process was reviewed with reference to Resolution 2012 -1 of March 7, 2012 which stipulates that "The City Council declares that the City may apply for grants with Mayor authorization prior to submission. Upon authorization, the Mayor will place submitted grants on the next City Council agenda." And "City Council shall approve grants prior to acceptance".

A review of artwork donated to the center was given by Lin Gray. The items noted were paintings "The Shoshonis' and Their Horses - Key to the Pacific" by Clark Kelley Price, and donated by Paul and Sharron of the May Family Ranch; "Spirit of Discovery - The Lewis and Clark Expedition" donated on behalf of Jason and Amy Beyler by Dennis S.Dahl. Both paintings will be on display at the Learning Center.

A general 2015 update of potential programs include family oriented programs for Mother's Day and Father's Day.

After a brief discussion on the time for future meetings, the meeting will be changed to 4:30 PM vice 4:15 PM. The next meeting of the Sacajawea Team will be 4:30 PM February 11, 2015.
